CHURCH WEEKEND

We looked far and wide for a venue, but a God-inspired moment led us to organise a Church weekend at home! The weekends (two so far) were very well attended have really helped us grow both individually and collectively. They have a balance of activities and worship that bring people together. People were free to opt in and out of the many events, and whole families were able to take part with very little financial expenditure

CHURCH WEEKEND

Activities included a ceilidh, a meal, a concert, breakfast together, a day's hill walk, exercise class, dance class, and a beach walk. We had a pampering-for-ladies beauty session and a floral art session over afternoon tea. There were team games, a children's party and a treasure hunt. We also set up an arts and crafts exhibition, and discovered much about each other's talents.

Most of us lasted the pace, and we were so blessed as we served, prayed, had much fun and fellowship and celebrated each other in Christ.

Our Aims:-

- . To express our love for God with our whole life, not just on Sunday
- . To demonstrate God's love to others by meeting their needs
- . To present the Good News about Jesus in an appropriate way for those in our community
- . To encourage, and practically support those who belong to the body of Christ
- . To help people to become more like Jesus in their thoughts, feelings and behaviour
