Retreat into Advent 2025

Zechariah:

Between Silence and Song

My soul in Silence waits

*Prayer trains the soul to singleness of focus:
for God alone my soul waits. ...*

Waiting means that there is another whom I trust and from whom I receive. ....

Waiting in prayer is a disciplined refusal to act before God acts.

Waiting is our participation in the process that results in the "time fulfilled".

The Caim at Luthermuir Morning of Silence and Reflection

Saturday 29th November

9.30am - 12.30pm

A retreat is a time to step away from the busyness of life and spend quiet, focused time with God. It's not about doing more, but about slowing down, listening, and letting your soul rest. As Ruth Haley Barton teaches, it's a chance to be still, reflect, and become more aware of God's presence in your life. You don't need to have it all together—just come with an open heart, ready to be refreshed and gently transformed. As we begin the Advent season, you are warmly invited to step aside into a space of quiet reflection here at The Caim.

This retreat morning offers you a gentle, unhurried pace with room for silence, creativity, and attentive listening. We will sit with the story of Zechariah (Luke 1)—exploring themes of stillness, and waiting. Through Scripture, reflection and simple creative practices, we'll open space to notice and tend to God's movement in our lives.

Cost: £25 per person

(includes refreshments and all materials)

Sign-up deadline: Monday 17th November

(Details and location will be sent after registration)

To register or enquire: [\[thecaimfield@gmail.com\]](mailto:thecaimfield@gmail.com)

If you have any questions at all, please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Please don't let cost alone stop you from coming—we want this space to be accessible. If this is a barrier, just contact us in confidence.

I look forward to welcoming you. Fyfe.
