Notice of Induction

Notice is hereby given that the Presbytery of Kincardine and Deeside has received a Call from this congregation of Stonehaven: Fetteresso addressed to the Rev Mark Lowey to be the new minister. This Call has been sustained as a regular Call, and has been accepted by him.

The Presbytery, having judged the said Mr Mark Lowey qualified for this charge, has resolved to proceed to his induction on Thursday the 14th day of January 2021 at 7 pm o'clock. The only circumstance in which this would not occur is if an objection occurs which may reasonably impede it.

Notice is given that if any member of this congregation of Stonehaven: Fetteresso has objection to the life or doctrine of the said Mr Mark Lowey you should intimate your objection at the earliest opportunity to the Presbytery Clerk. If you do this, you will also need to submit to the Presbytery Clerk appropriate evidence to substantiate your objection.

The Presbytery is to meet at 6.30pm on Thursday the 14th day of January 2021 in Stonehaven: Fetteresso Church. If an objection is not notified in advance ~~but is first brought at that meeting the objector must satisfy the Presbytery that there was no earlier opportunity to bring the objection to the attention of the Presbytery Clerk.~~ Since a physical meeting of the Presbytery cannot now happen, all objections must be made to the Presbytery Clerk before 4pm on Thursday 14th January.

Unless a substantiated objection is made which is then upheld, the Presbytery shall proceed to the induction of the said Mr Mark Lowey without further delay.

By order of the Presbytery

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity to begin

Beginning on Monday 18 January, churches around the world will mark the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity over eight days.

This year's worship materials have been created by the Monastic Community of Grandchamp in Switzerland and are themed around 'Abide in my love and you shall bear much fruit', (John 15:1-17).

The annual event, which first began in 1908, is designed to strengthen the ecumenical ties between denominations and encourage a sense of mutual support.

It is timed to run from the date commemorating the Confession of St Peter to the Conversion of St Paul, marked on 25 January.

Rev John McPake, who is the ecumenical officer of the Church of Scotland said: "At this particular moment in the life of the Church, and as we face the challenge the pandemic confronts us with, we affirm the significance of prayer.

"We recognise the truth of these words: 'Jesus Christ is our Mediator with the Father, constantly praying for us before the throne of God.' In response to the prayer of Jesus Christ, we offer our prayers.

"As we pray during the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, we live out our response to the prayer of Jesus that we 'may all be one...that the world may believe' (John 17: 21)."

Prayer for Christian Unity:

Thrice-holy God, we thank you for having created and loved us.

We thank you for your presence in us and in creation.

May we learn to look upon the world as you look upon it, with love.

In the hope of this vision, may we be able to work for a world where justice and peace flourish, for the glory of your name.

January 2021 Prayer Focus

Go With God

Trust in the Lord with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths.

Proverbs 3:5-6

In December our prayer focus was 'Immanuel' which means 'God with us'. Jesus came into our world to reveal the Father God who loves us and longs that we should know him.

2020 was a year we shall not forget, although many have said they would like to, and we pray for better days to come in 2021. The truth is that we never know what a day will bring and none of us knows what lies ahead in 2021. The good news is that God does.

GOD KNOWS

And I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year:

"Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown."

And he replied:

"Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the Hand of God.

That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."

So I went forth, and finding the Hand of God, trod gladly into the night.

And He led me towards the hills and the breaking of day in the lone East.

From "God Knows" by Minnie Louise Haskins.

[ref: https://en.m.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Gate_of_the_Year]

God knows everything great and small that will happen to us each day. He sees the end from the beginning. When we seek him, no matter what happens he has promised never to leave us nor forsake us. God has already won the final victory and he continues to work his purposes out. Jesus instructs us in John Chapter 15 that we are to remain in him and that apart from him we can do nothing.

As we step into this year let us pray and remember, as individuals and as God's church here in Stonehaven, that no matter what, we are to 'Go with God.'

Some have commented that during advent they found it helpful to focus on and pray for the one thing listed each day, so for January we offer you the opportunity to do so again.

With the theme "Go with God " we offer a focus for your prayers.
