Subject: National Parliamentary Prayer Breakfast 2023

We are delighted to invite you to the 2023 National Parliamentary Prayer Breakfast.

Dear Mark,

We are delighted to invite you to the 2023 National Parliamentary Prayer Breakfast, which is taking place on Tuesday 27 June from 7:30am to 9:00am in Westminster Hall in the Houses of Parliament.

The Breakfast is a great opportunity to pray for our parliament, government and politics, to build relationships between church leaders and parliamentarians and to reflect upon the relevance of the Christian faith to our public life. It is attended by The Speaker and Lord Speaker, The Prime Minister, The Leader of the Opposition, leaders of the political parties, MPs, Peers and church leaders from all over the United Kingdom. Watch highlights from last year's events here.

Our theme this year is 'The Power of Forgiveness in Public Life' and we are delighted that our main speaker will be Dr Amy Orr-Ewing, honorary lecturer at the University of Aberdeen School of Divinity.

After the main breakfast, we are delighted to offer a programme of seminars as well as a dedicated event for church leaders later in the morning. Please visit our website for more information on the programme.

A central aim of the event is for MPs and church leaders to attend together. Please invite your local MP to attend the breakfast with you. Due to high demand for spaces, we regret that at this stage, you can only buy a ticket if your MP confirms that they will attend with you. If you are awaiting a response from your MP, please join the waiting list here and we will follow up with the MP on your behalf. If your MP cannot attend, please use the link above to join the waiting list.

Book to attend the National Parliamentary Prayer Breakfast. You will need to enter the access code NPBCHL23 on the Eventbrite form.
